

IRON-GRAY

Meaning: Iron-gray refers to a dark, metallic shade of gray that resembles the color of iron, often conveying a sense of strength and subtle elegance.

1. The old barn stood in the field, its iron-gray roof blending seamlessly with the overcast sky.
2. She wore a stunning dress made of flowing fabric that shimmered in an elegant iron-gray hue.
3. As the sun set, the lake reflected an iron-gray surface, creating a dramatic and serene atmosphere.
4. The artist used various shades of iron-gray to depict the somber mood of the landscape in his painting.
5. His hair had turned an iron-gray over the years, giving him a distinguished and wise appearance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/iron-gray>