

IRONBOUND

Meaning: Ironbound refers to being strongly fortified or protected, often characterized by a rugged, unyielding quality, as seen in coastlines or gates.

1. The ironbound coast of the island was rugged and beautiful, challenging even the most experienced sailors.
2. After years of neglect, the ironbound gate to the garden was restored to its former glory.
3. Her ironbound resolve to succeed pushed her to work harder than ever before.
4. The city's ironbound history is evident in its architecture and long-standing traditions.
5. He faced the ironbound rules of the competition with determination and strategic thinking.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ironbound>