

IRONIC

Meaning: Ironic: occurring in a way that is contrary to what is expected, often highlighting a surprising or humorous discrepancy between reality and expectations.

1. It's ironic that the fire station burned down while the firefighters were responding to another emergency.
2. She found it ironic that she had forgotten her umbrella on the rainiest day of the year.
3. His decision to criticize others for procrastination was ironic, given that he had missed several deadlines himself.
4. It's ironic how people often seek happiness in material possessions, only to find it in simple moments.
5. The irony of the situation struck her when the person who preached honesty was caught in a lie.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ironic>