

IRONWORK

Meaning: Ironwork refers to decorative or functional structures made from iron, often featuring intricate designs, such as gates, railings, and architectural details.

1. The intricate ironwork on the balcony added a touch of elegance to the old mansion.
2. Artists specializing in ironwork often create stunning gates and railings that blend functionality with beauty.
3. In the historic district, many buildings showcase beautiful ironwork that reflects the craftsmanship of an earlier era.
4. The blacksmith spent years perfecting his ironwork, producing both decorative and practical pieces for his clients.
5. Restoration of the ironwork in the park's entrance was a labor of love for the community volunteers.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ironwork>