

IRRADIATE

Meaning: Irradiate: to emit or spread light, heat, or energy, enhancing brightness or warmth.

1. The sun's rays irradiate the earth, providing warmth and light to all living things.
2. The artist used bright colors to irradiate the canvas, creating a vibrant and lively atmosphere.
3. Plants need sunlight to irradiate their leaves, enabling photosynthesis to occur efficiently.
4. Her smile seemed to irradiate happiness, lifting the spirits of everyone around her.
5. The scientist studied how different wavelengths of light could irradiate materials for various applications.
6. The sun's rays irradiate the landscape, casting a warm glow over the fields.
7. The scientist aimed to irradiate the samples to study their response to high levels of radiation.
8. Her smile seemed to irradiate joy, lifting the spirits of everyone around her.
9. The artwork was designed to irradiate the gallery with vibrant colors and light.
10. As night fell, the stars began to irradiate the dark sky, creating a breathtaking view.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irradiate>