

IRRATIONALLY

Meaning: Irrationally: in a manner that is not guided by reason or logic, often influenced by emotions.

1. She reacted irrationally to the news, allowing her emotions to cloud her judgment.
2. His decision to invest in that failing company seemed irrationally optimistic.
3. They argued irrationally about trivial matters, ignoring the larger issues at play.
4. At times, we all act irrationally, driven by our fears and insecurities.
5. The team's behavior was irrationally aggressive during the heated match, surprising everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irrationally>