

IRRECEPTIVE

Meaning: Irreceptive means unwilling or unable to consider or accept new ideas, feedback, or opinions.

1. The committee remained irreceptive to the community's concerns, dismissing their feedback without consideration.
2. Despite the evidence presented, he was irreceptive to changing his opinion on the matter.
3. Her irreceptive attitude during the discussion frustrated her colleagues, who were eager to find a solution.
4. The teacher found it challenging to engage with an irreceptive student who showed no interest in the lesson.
5. Often, an irreceptive mindset can hinder personal growth and prevent the acceptance of new ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreceptive>