

IRRECONCILABILITY

Meaning: Irreconcilability refers to the state of being unable to resolve or reconcile opposing beliefs, views, or positions.

1. The irreconcilability of their differing beliefs ultimately led to the end of their friendship.
2. In the debate over environmental policy, the irreconcilability of the two sides made compromise nearly impossible.
3. Her feelings of irreconcilability towards his actions left them both feeling frustrated and hurt.
4. The irreconcilability of their values became apparent during family discussions about future plans.
5. Despite their best efforts, the irreconcilability of their opinions on the matter left them at an impasse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreconcilability>