

IRRECONCILABLE

Meaning: Irreconcilable refers to differences or beliefs that are so fundamentally opposed that they cannot be reconciled or resolved.

1. The two parties had irreconcilable differences that ultimately led to the breakup of their partnership.
2. Despite their efforts to communicate, the couple found their beliefs to be irreconcilable.
3. The judge ruled that the conflicting testimonies were irreconcilable, making it difficult to reach a verdict.
4. Her irreconcilable views on the issue caused tensions within the team, preventing any progress.
5. In the end, their irreconcilable ambitions forced them to part ways on bitter terms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreconcilable>