

IRRECONCILE

Meaning: Irreconcilable refers to differences or positions that cannot be reconciled or resolved, often leading to a stalemate or conflict.

1. Their differing values seemed irreconcilable, leaving them at an impasse.
2. The committee was faced with irreconcilable differences that stalled the decision-making process.
3. Despite their efforts, the two sides remained irreconcilable in their opinions on the matter.
4. Her emotions were irreconcilable with her logical reasoning, creating an inner conflict.
5. The two factions held irreconcilable beliefs that made peaceful dialogue nearly impossible.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreconcile>