

IRRECURED

Meaning: Irrecured refers to a financial loss or asset that cannot be recovered or reclaimed.

1. The financial loss was considered irrecured, leaving the company in a precarious position.
2. After the disastrous investment, the assets became irrecured and the shareholders were left to cope with the aftermath.
3. His emotional state felt irrecured, as if no amount of therapy could restore his former happiness.
4. The damage to the historic building was deemed irrecured, prompting a debate about preservation versus modernization.
5. With the evidence gone, the case was irrecured, and the chances of prosecution slipped away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irrecured>