

IRREDEEMABLE

Meaning: Irredeemable refers to something that cannot be recovered, restored, or improved.

1. The damage to the ancient script was so extensive that it was deemed irredeemable.
2. After years of neglect, the relationship felt irredeemable, leaving both parties heartbroken.
3. His repeated mistakes made her believe he was irredeemable in terms of trust.
4. The company faced irredeemable losses after the scandal unfolded in the media.
5. Some critics argue that the current political situation is irredeemable, requiring a complete overhaul.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irredeemable>