

IRREDUCIBLE

Meaning: Irreducible refers to something that cannot be simplified, broken down, or diminished further in its form or impact.

1. The concept of an irreducible polynomial is fundamental in algebra.
2. In the debate over climate change, some argue that human impact is irreducible and cannot be ignored.
3. The artist's unique style is considered irreducible, making her work instantly recognizable.
4. Their friendship remained irreducible despite the many challenges they faced together.
5. He argued that certain truths about human nature are irreducible, unchanging despite the passage of time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreducible>