

IRRELATION

Meaning: Irrelation refers to a lack of connection or relevance between two or more things.

1. The concept of irrelation in his argument left many listeners confused.
2. She struggled to understand the irrelation between the two events presented in the lecture.
3. Despite their friendship, there was a clear irrelation in their interests and hobbies.
4. The scientist noted the irrelation of the data sets, suggesting a need for further research.
5. In philosophy, the irrelation of certain ideas can lead to unexpected conclusions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irrelation>