

IRRELAVANT

Meaning: Irrelevant: not connected with or pertinent to the matter being considered.

1. The committee dismissed his arguments as irrelevant to the main issue at hand.
2. She found the remarks about her appearance completely irrelevant to the discussion.
3. Focusing on past mistakes is often irrelevant when trying to move forward.
4. In a scientific debate, emotional appeals are often seen as irrelevant data points.
5. His comments seemed irrelevant, given the serious nature of the topic being discussed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irrelavant>