

IRRELIGIOUS

Meaning: Irreligious refers to a lack of religious beliefs or practices, often characterized by skepticism or indifference towards religion.

1. His irreligious views often sparked heated debates among his more devout friends.
2. Growing up in an irreligious household, she found herself questioning the need for traditional beliefs.
3. The novel explored the life of an irreligious protagonist navigating a world steeped in faith.
4. Despite his irreligious stance, he respected the cultural significance of religious practices in society.
5. Her irreligious attitude led her to seek meaning in philosophy rather than organized religion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreligious>