

IRREMEDIABLENESS

Meaning: Irremediableness refers to the quality of being impossible to remedy or correct, leading to a sense of hopelessness or inevitability.

1. The irremediableness of her situation left her feeling hopeless and trapped.
2. He pondered the irremediableness of his past mistakes, realizing he could not change them.
3. In literature, the theme of irremediableness often explores the consequences of irreversible choices.
4. The doctor's report highlighted the irremediableness of the patient's condition, prompting a difficult decision.
5. Despite their efforts, the irremediableness of the damage caused by the storm was evident to all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irremediableness>