

IRREMOVABILITY

Meaning: Irremovability refers to the quality of being unable to be removed or dismissed, often used in legal and psychological contexts to denote protection from arbitrary removal or the lasting impact of experiences.

1. The concept of irremovability in legal terms often protects individuals from arbitrary dismissal.
2. In the context of memory, the irremovability of certain experiences can shape a person's identity for life.
3. The irremovability of the scars on her heart served as a reminder of past struggles and resilience.
4. During the debate, he argued that the irremovability of certain rights is fundamental to a just society.
5. The irremovability of the ancient trees in the park highlights the need for conservation efforts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irremovability>