

IRREPARABILITY

Meaning: Irreparability refers to the state of being impossible to repair or restore, often used in relation to damage or loss that is permanent.

1. The irreparability of the damage caused by the storm left the community in shock.
2. Many believe that the irreparability of broken trust can never be mended.
3. In the context of environmental degradation, irreparability poses a significant threat to biodiversity.
4. Her heart broke at the thought of the irreparability of their lost friendship.
5. The artist grappled with the irreparability of his masterpiece after an accidental spill.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreparability>