

IRREPARABLE

Meaning: Irreparable refers to damage or harm that cannot be repaired or restored.

1. The damage done to the ancient artifact was deemed irreparable, leaving historians devastated.
2. After the accident, she realized that some relationships could suffer irreparable harm.
3. His reckless actions led to irreparable consequences for the entire community.
4. The loss of the original manuscript was an irreparable setback for the project's timeline.
5. Despite their best efforts, the team found the environmental changes to be irreparable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreparable>