

IRREPEALABILITY

Meaning: Irrepealability refers to the quality of being incapable of being revoked or annulled, particularly in the context of certain constitutional laws or rights.

1. The concept of irrepealability is central to understanding the permanence of certain constitutional laws.
2. In legal discussions, the irrepealability of specific rights often sparks debates among scholars and activists.
3. The irrepealability of the amendment guarantees that it cannot be revoked by subsequent legislation.
4. Many citizens are unaware of the irrepealability clause that protects their fundamental freedoms.
5. Irrepealability ensures that once a law is enacted, it cannot be easily undone by future governments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irrepealability>