IRREPUTABLE

Meaning: Irreputable: not able to be discredited or questioned; having a reputation that is beyond reproach.

1. The scientist presented irreputable evidence that changed the course of the research.

2. Despite the claims made against him, his reputation remained irreputable in the eyes of his peers.

3. The documentary provided irreputable facts that challenged long-held beliefs about the phenomenon.

4. In the courtroom, the lawyer emphasized the irreputable nature of the witness's testimony.

5. Her achievements were so outstanding that they rendered any criticism irreputable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irreputable