

IRRESOLVABLE

Meaning: Irresolvable: incapable of being resolved or settled.

1. The conflict between the two factions seemed irreconcilable, leaving many to believe it was ultimately irretrievable.
2. Despite their best efforts, the legal team faced an irreconcilable difference that kept the case from moving forward.
3. Her indecision on the matter was so profound that some labeled the issue as irreconcilable within their relationship.
4. The committee's failure to reach a consensus left an irreconcilable divide among its members.
5. In the end, they realized that their philosophical differences were irreconcilable, leading to a permanent rift in their friendship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irresolvable>