

IRRESPONSIBILITY

Meaning: Irresponsibility refers to a lack of accountability or care in one's actions, often resulting in negative consequences.

1. His irresponsibility during the project led to significant delays and cost overruns.
2. The teacher addressed the students' irresponsibility by emphasizing the importance of accountability.
3. Her constant irresponsibility in managing her finances resulted in mounting debt.
4. Despite his talent, his irresponsibility on the field prevented him from reaching his full potential.
5. The community was frustrated by the irresponsibility of the local officials in handling the crisis.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irresponsibility>