

IRRETENTIVE

Meaning: Irretentive refers to a lack of ability to retain or remember information or details.

1. The irretentive nature of his memory made it difficult for him to recall important details.
2. Despite her irretentive tendencies, she managed to retain the essence of the conversation.
3. The irretentive child often forgot the rules of the game after just a few minutes.
4. His irretentive thoughts drifted away as soon as he tried to focus on the task at hand.
5. She found it challenging to engage in deep discussions due to her irretentive disposition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irretentive>