

IRRETRACEABLE

Meaning: Irrecoverable or impossible to trace back or recover.

1. The lost artifacts were considered irtraceable, leaving historians in despair.
2. After the accident, the evidence became irtraceable, complicating the investigation.
3. Their decisions had led to irtraceable consequences that would forever alter their lives.
4. In the vast expanse of the ocean, many shipwrecks remain irtraceable to this day.
5. Once the data was deleted, it became irtraceable, frustrating the IT department.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irretraceable>