

IRRITANT

Meaning: Irritant: a substance or factor that causes discomfort, annoyance, or inflammation.

1. Traffic noise can be a significant irritant for people trying to concentrate at home.
2. The harsh chemicals in some cleaning products can act as an irritant to sensitive skin.
3. His constant late arrivals became an irritant to his colleagues who valued punctuality.
4. Pollen is a common irritant for allergy sufferers during the spring months.
5. The bright lights in the office were an irritant that made it difficult for her to focus on her work.
6. The strong smell of ammonia was a constant irritant in the laboratory.
7. She found his constant interruptions to be a frustrating irritant during the meeting.
8. Dust and pollen are common irritants for people with allergies.
9. The loud music from the neighboring apartment became an irritant that disturbed her peace.
10. Many skin care products contain fragrances that can act as irritants for sensitive skin.
11. Dust and pollen can be a significant irritant for people with allergies.
12. His constant interruptions became an irritant during the meeting.
13. The strong smell of the chemicals served as an irritant to those nearby.
14. She found his habit of leaving dirty dishes around to be an ongoing irritant.
15. Increased traffic noise has become a major irritant for local residents.