

IRRITATE

Meaning: To annoy or provoke discomfort in someone.

1. Loud noises can easily irritate someone trying to concentrate.
2. Her constant interruptions began to irritate the other members of the meeting.
3. It irritates me when people don't respect my personal space.
4. The rough fabric of the sweater started to irritate my skin.
5. Even minor inconveniences can irritate him when he's in a bad mood.
6. Loud noises can irritate people trying to concentrate.
7. His constant interruptions began to irritate everyone in the meeting.
8. The strong smell of the perfume seemed to irritate my allergies.
9. She tried to stay calm, but his remarks continued to irritate her.
10. Using too much salt in the recipe will irritate your guests' taste buds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irritate>