

ISODIMORPHOUS

Meaning: Isodimorphous refers to mineral specimens that have identical crystal structures despite differing in composition or symmetry.

1. The mineral specimens were classified as isodimorphous due to their identical crystal structures.
2. In mineralogy, isodimorphous pairs exhibit similar compositions but differ in crystal symmetry.
3. Scientists were intrigued by the isodimorphous nature of the two substances, leading to further research.
4. The concept of isodimorphous materials is essential in understanding mineral transformations.
5. During the lecture, the professor explained how isodimorphous minerals can exhibit different physical properties despite their structural similarities.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/isodimorphous>