

ISOPODIFORM

Meaning: Isopodiform refers to organisms that resemble or share characteristics with isopods, typically crustaceans adapted to aquatic environments.

1. The marine biologist discovered an isopodiform creature hidden among the coral reefs.
2. Isopodiform species exhibit remarkable adaptations to their underwater environments.
3. Researchers were fascinated by the unique isopodiform features of the newly identified organism.
4. In her presentation, she explained the significance of isopodiform morphology in evolutionary studies.
5. The isopodiform form of the crustacean allowed it to thrive in its specific ecological niche.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/isopodiform>