

It goes to show

Meaning: It goes to show is used to indicate that something demonstrates or proves a point.

1. Her hard work paid off, and it goes to show that dedication leads to success.
2. The study's results were surprising, but it goes to show how little we know about the topic.
3. He missed the bus again, and it goes to show that he needs to leave home earlier.
4. The team's victory was unexpected, but it goes to show that anything is possible in sports.
5. Her kindness to strangers goes to show the importance of compassion in our daily lives.
6. The movie's popularity at the box office goes to show that audiences love a good story.
7. The increase in sales this quarter goes to show that our marketing strategy is working.
8. His willingness to help others goes to show his strong character and values.
9. The feedback from customers goes to show that we need to improve our services.
10. The variety of wildlife in the park goes to show how important it is to protect natural habitats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/it+goes+to+show>