

It is revealing that

Meaning: The phrase 'it is revealing that' indicates that something is being disclosed or made clear about a situation or subject.

1. It is revealing that the study showed a significant difference in behavior between the two groups.
2. When she shared her experience, it was revealing that she had faced similar challenges as many others.
3. The data analysis was revealing that the trend had been consistent over several years.
4. It is revealing that the author chose to focus on the character's internal struggles rather than external conflicts.
5. In his speech, it was revealing that he acknowledged the mistakes made in the past.
6. The documentary was revealing that many people are unaware of the environmental impact of their choices.
7. It is revealing that the survey results indicate a shift in public opinion on the issue.
8. Her reaction was revealing that she had strong feelings about the topic.
9. It is revealing that the historical documents contradict the widely accepted narrative.
10. The experiment's outcome was revealing that the hypothesis was not supported by the evidence.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/it-is-revealing-that>