

JABBER

Meaning: Jabber (verb): to talk rapidly and excitedly in a way that is difficult to understand.

1. The children began to jabber excitedly as the circus performers arrived.
  2. She could hear them jabbering away in the next room, completely unaware of her presence.
  3. His mind raced with thoughts, and he found himself jabbering incoherently during the interview.
  4. The tourists jabbered in different languages, all trying to capture the moment on camera.
  5. As the caffeine kicked in, she started to jabber about her latest ideas for the project.
  6. The children began to jabber excitedly as they spotted the ice cream truck.
  7. During the meeting, he tended to jabber on about topics that weren't relevant to our discussion.
  8. As they walked through the market, the vendors would jabber about their fresh produce and special deals.
  9. She couldn't help but jabber away her thoughts, eager to share her excitement with anyone who would listen.
  10. The two friends would often jabber late into the night, sharing secrets and laughter over cups of tea.
  11. The children began to jabber excitedly as they opened their gifts.
  12. During the meeting, he couldn't help but jabber about his latest project.
  13. As the crowd gathered, the noise turned into a confusing jabber of voices.
  14. She could hardly understand his jabber, as he spoke so quickly and animatedly.
  15. When the puppy saw its owner, it started to jabber with joy, wagging its tail.
  16. The children began to jabber excitedly as the circus arrived in town.
  17. She couldn't help but jabber about her recent vacation adventures.
  18. During the meeting, his tendency to jabber made it difficult for anyone to stay focused.
  19. The parrot would jabber endlessly, repeating phrases it had heard from its owner.
  20. As they sat around the campfire, they started to jabber about their favorite ghost stories.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jabber>