

JABBERER

Meaning: JABBERER: A person who talks rapidly and excitedly, often dominating a conversation.

1. The jabberer at the café could be heard from across the room, sharing stories with animated gestures.
2. During the meeting, the jabberer monopolized the conversation, leaving little room for others to contribute.
3. Everyone knew the jabberer would arrive late, as she couldn't resist stopping to chat with everyone along the way.
4. His reputation as a jabberer was well-earned, as he often launched into long-winded tales that seemed to have no end.
5. Despite his tendency to be a jabberer, his friends appreciated his enthusiasm and lively spirit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jabberer>