

JACAL

Meaning: Jacal: a traditional dwelling made of wood and mud, typically found in rural Mexico.

1. A jacal is a traditional dwelling constructed from wood and mud commonly found in some parts of Mexico.
2. During his travels through rural Mexico, he stayed overnight in a jacal, marveling at its simplicity.
3. The jacal's thatched roof provided just enough shelter from the occasional rainstorm.
4. Many families still choose to live in jacals, valuing their connection to ancestral ways of life.
5. The craftsmanship of the jacal reflects the ingenuity of its builders, utilizing local materials effectively.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jacal>