

JACKKNIFE

Meaning: Jackknife (verb): to bend or fold something, especially in a way that resembles the action of a jackknife, often used in culinary contexts for cutting or arranging.

1. The chef expertly jackknifed the vegetables for a beautifully arranged platter.
2. During the hike, he slipped and fell, narrowly avoiding a jackknife that was in his backpack.
3. The truck driver had to maneuver quickly to avoid a jackknife accident on the icy road.
4. She used a jackknife to carve her initials into the wooden bench.
5. In the wrestling match, he executed a perfect jackknife pin to secure his victory.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jackknife>