

JACOBINISM

Meaning: Jacobinism is a political ideology associated with the radical democratic principles and revolutionary fervor of the Jacobins during the French Revolution, advocating for equality, popular sovereignty, and social reform.

1. Jacobinism played a significant role in shaping the political landscape of revolutionary France.
2. The fervent ideals of Jacobinism inspired a wave of social reform across Europe.
3. Many historians argue that Jacobinism represented the radical edge of the Enlightenment movement.
4. Critics of Jacobinism often highlight its association with the Reign of Terror and the suppression of dissent.
5. The legacy of Jacobinism can still be seen in various leftist movements around the world today.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jacobinism>