

JACTATION

Meaning: Jactation refers to a restless or involuntary movement or tossing about, often associated with anxiety or agitation.

1. Her constant jactation during the meeting made it difficult for others to focus.
2. The patient's jactation was a clear sign of his underlying anxiety and distress.
3. As she paced the room, her jactation revealed her impatience with the slow progress of the project.
4. In his speech, he addressed the jactation of the public as a critical issue that needed immediate attention.
5. The committee discussed the jactation of certain members who seemed overly agitated by the proposed changes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jactation>