

JANGLING

Meaning: Jangling refers to a clattering or discordant ringing sound produced by metal objects striking each other.

1. The jangling of the keys in his pocket was the only sound breaking the silence.
2. As the train approached, the jangling of metal wheels on the tracks filled the air.
3. Her nerves were on edge, heightened by the jangling of the wind chimes outside.
4. The jangling of the dog's collar echoed in the empty hall as it ran toward the door.
5. Amidst the chaos of the market, the jangling of coins was a familiar melody of daily life.
6. The jangling of the piano keys filled the room with a chaotic melody.
7. As she walked down the street, the jangling of her keys reminded her of home.
8. The jangling sound of the coins in his pocket made him feel rich and carefree.
9. In the distance, the jangling bells of the ice cream truck drew children from their homes.
10. His nerves were jangling as he waited for the big announcement to be made.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jangling>