

JAPANNED

Meaning: Japanned refers to a finish or coating that resembles lacquer, often characterized by a glossy surface and intricate decorative designs, typically applied to furniture or metalware.

1. The antique table was beautifully japanned, showcasing intricate designs and a glossy finish.
2. She admired the japanned tinware at the flea market, noting its vibrant colors and craftsmanship.
3. The artist decided to use a japanned technique to give the sculpture a unique, reflective quality.
4. After years of wear, the japanned surface of the cabinet needed restoration to regain its former glory.
5. His collection of japanned furniture was the centerpiece of the room, drawing the attention of all the guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/japanned>