

JARRING

Meaning: Jarring: causing a shock or disturbance, often due to being unexpected or loud.

1. The sudden loud crash was jarring, causing everyone in the room to jump.
2. Her jarring laughter broke the awkward silence that had settled over the group.
3. The film's jarring transitions between scenes left the audience feeling disoriented.
4. He found the jarring colors of the painting hard to look at for too long.
5. The news delivered in a jarring tone made it difficult for her to process the information.
6. The sudden change in volume during the concert was jarring and took everyone by surprise.
7. Her jarring laughter echoed through the quiet library, drawing disapproving glances from nearby patrons.
8. The abrupt transition from vibrant colors to dull shades in the painting felt jarring to the viewers.
9. His jarring remarks during the meeting left many feeling uncomfortable and confused about their next steps.
10. The film's jarring ending left the audience in stunned silence as they processed what they had just witnessed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jarring>