

JEALOUS

Meaning: Feeling or showing resentment against someone because of that person's rivalry, success, or advantages.

1. She felt jealous when she saw her friend receiving all the praise.
2. His jealous nature often led to misunderstandings in his relationships.
3. The jealous glance she cast at her sister made it clear she wasn't pleased.
4. Despite his attempts to hide it, his jealous feelings were evident during the party.
5. Being jealous of someone else's success can prevent you from celebrating your own achievements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jealous>