

JEALOUSHOOD

Meaning: Jealoushood refers to the state or condition of being jealous, often characterized by feelings of insecurity, distrust, and resentment towards others' achievements or relationships.

1. Jealously guarding her accomplishments, she often found herself trapped in a cycle of jealousy.
2. The jealousy that permeated their friendship eventually led to distrust and resentment.
3. His jealousy was evident whenever she spoke to other men, causing tension in their relationship.
4. In moments of weakness, he realized that jealousy could cloud his judgment and harm those he cared about.
5. They decided to address their jealousy openly, understanding that communication was key to overcoming it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jealoushood>