

JEER

Meaning: To jeer means to make mocking or insulting remarks, often in a loud or derisive manner.

1. The crowd began to jeer as the opposing team took the field.
2. Despite their jeers, she remained focused on her performance.
3. He couldn't help but jeer at the ridiculousness of the situation.
4. The comedian's jokes were met with both laughter and jeers from the audience.
5. Their jeers echoed through the stadium, adding to the tension of the game.
6. The crowd began to jeer at the player after he missed the penalty kick.
7. Instead of offering support, they chose to jeer at his efforts to speak in public.
8. Even though he tried to defend his ideas, the critics continued to jeer dismissively.
9. She could hear her classmates jeer at her from across the playground as she stumbled.
10. It's disheartening to see people jeer at those who are brave enough to take risks.
11. The crowd began to jeer at the referee after the controversial call.
12. Despite their efforts to ignore the taunts, the players could still hear the jeers from the stands.
13. He felt a pang of disappointment when his classmates chose to jeer instead of support him.
14. Her jokes were met with jeers rather than laughter, leaving her feeling embarrassed.
15. Instead of cheering for their team, some fans resorted to jeering at the opponents.
16. The crowd began to jeer as the player missed the crucial penalty kick.
17. Rather than support her friend, she chose to jeer at his unfortunate mistake.
18. The comedian's jokes were met with jeers from an unimpressed audience.
19. He fought back tears as he heard the jeers from his classmates after the speech.
20. Despite the jeers, she remained determined to pursue her dreams unabashedly.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jeer>