

JELL

Meaning: To jell means to become firm or set, typically referring to a substance like gelatin solidifying into a gel-like consistency.

1. The children watched in awe as the colorful jelly began to jell in the refrigerator.
2. After adding the gelatin to the mixture, it took several hours for the dessert to finally jell properly.
3. His plans to jell the team's ideas into a cohesive strategy were met with enthusiasm.
4. As the temperatures dropped, the mixture of fruit and sugar started to jell into a thick syrup.
5. In her cooking class, she learned the perfect technique to jell her homemade preserves.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jell>