

JEOPARDOUS

Meaning: Jeopardous: involving or exposing to danger or risk; hazardous.

1. The reckless driving on the icy roads created a jeopardous situation for all travelers.
2. Investing in unstable markets can be a jeopardous move for inexperienced investors.
3. The lack of safety measures in the old building rendered it jeopardous for the residents.
4. She understood that entering the abandoned mine was a jeopardous decision that could cost her life.
5. Ignoring the weather warnings could lead to jeopardous conditions during the hike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jeopardous>