

JERGUER

Meaning: 'JERGUER' (verb): to move or sway rhythmically, often in a lively or expressive manner, typically in response to music or storytelling.

1. The old man began to jerguer as he recounted the tales of his youth.
2. In the rhythm of the music, the dancers started to jerguer with joy.
3. She decided to jerguer in the kitchen while preparing dinner for her friends.
4. To jerguer is an expression of happiness that brings people together.
5. With each step, he would jerguer lightly, embodying the spirit of the festival.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jerguer>