

JERK

Meaning: JERK (noun): a rude, insensitive, or obnoxious person.

1. He was such a jerk for canceling our plans at the last minute.
2. It's frustrating to deal with a jerk who never takes responsibility for his actions.
3. She called him a jerk after he made a rude comment during the meeting.
4. Despite his charm, many people saw him as a jerk for how he treated others.
5. Don't be a jerk; always treat people with respect and kindness.
6. He can be such a jerk when he doesn't get his way.
7. I can't believe he called her that; what a jerk!
8. After his rude comments, everyone started to see him as a jerk.
9. She decided to distance herself from him because he was acting like a jerk.
10. Don't be a jerk; treat others with kindness and respect.
11. I can't believe you let that jerk talk to you like that.
12. After he made that rude comment, I realized he's just a jerk.
13. She decided to break up with him because he was acting like a jerk.
14. It's frustrating how some people can be such jerks in public places.
15. Don't be a jerk; just apologize and move on.
16. I can't believe he treated her like that; what a jerk!
17. Sometimes people are jerks without realizing how they affect others.
18. It's frustrating to work with someone who's a total jerk.