

JERKIN

Meaning: A jerkin is a close-fitting, sleeveless outer garment, typically made of leather or similar material, worn over a shirt.

1. The old man wore a traditional jerkin made of coarse leather.
2. In the historical reenactment, the soldiers donned jerkin-style garments to reflect the era accurately.
3. She admired the craftsmanship of the jerkin, with its intricate stitching and unique design.
4. During the winter hunt, he appreciated the warmth and flexibility of his woolen jerkin.
5. The fashion show featured a modern twist on the classic jerkin, appealing to both young and old audiences.
6. The fisherman wore a traditional jerkin made of sturdy leather.
7. In the historical reenactment, the soldiers donned jerkin coats to represent their uniforms accurately.
8. She admired the intricate embroidery on the jerkin displayed in the museum's exhibit.
9. During the chilly evening, he found warmth in his woolen jerkin while sitting by the fire.
10. The tailor crafted a bespoke jerkin for the gentleman, tailored perfectly to his frame.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jerkin>