

JERRY-BUILDER

Meaning: A jerry-builder is a contractor or builder known for using poor-quality materials and substandard construction practices to save costs.

1. The house fell apart after just a few years, a clear sign of the jerry-builder's shoddy workmanship.
2. Neighbors warned us about the jerry-builder who cut corners to save money, and we should have listened.
3. After dealing with a jerry-builder, we learned the importance of hiring a reputable contractor for our renovations.
4. The local council has been cracking down on jerry-builders to ensure that new developments meet safety standards.
5. Her experience with a jerry-builder left her skeptical of any new construction projects in the area.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jerry-builder>